Obama Hates Your Gun Rights!

The Militia is You. And this year's elections may well be the most important in your voting lifetime if you value the last power you possess to resist corrupt government agents—your right to keep and bear arms—because Barack Obama opposes the Second Amendment rights of law-abiding, freedom-loving, American firearm owners. Barack Obama is the most anti-gun presidential candidate in American history! No question. Defeat Obama—the most anti-gun rights candidate in history, or fascism/socialism/Police State slavery is our future.

Before you go to polls on Election Day be sure that you know where the candidates stand on your Right to Keep and Bear Arms! Obama's campaign rhetoric cannot be allowed to substitute for his long record of opposition to gun owners' rights! You can defend your gun rights by voting for President the John McCain and Sarah Palin team of 2nd Amendment advocates and gun owners! You can elect other pro-Second Amendment candidates if you know who they are, so The MAN strongly encourages voters visit the NRA website, <http://www.NRAPVF.org> where you can see the gun support voting records of patriots, and the anti-gun rights voting records of the fascists like Obama, Pelosi, Inouye, Akaka, Hirono.

There are only six days left before the most important election of our lifetime. Now is the time for action, because Barack Obama does not approve of the fact that the Founders of the United States of America who fought off the tyranny of the King of England and declared their independence wanted to insure that the people of USA should always retain the ability to forcibly resist tyrants like Obama who think that only POLICE and military should be armed.

Such notions of armed resistance to corrupt government agents by the People to preserve their liberty, freedom, independence, their sovereignty and their government in republican form troubles dictators; and, a populace who keep their own guns for self defense and specifically to resist their own government that has been corrupted by fascist infiltrators, strikes profound fear in souls of tyrants like Obama, Biden, Clinton, Pelosi, Inouye, Akaka, Hirono, Abercrombie.

Tyrants world wide prefer to be able to use violence whenever they want, without their victims having the firearms to effectively resist and arrest their criminal behavior

MORE: If Barack Obama wins this election, one more thing is certain, taxing and spending will increase burden on middle class, and he will preside over the largest expansion of the government's role in the economy since the 1930s, with the same result as the original one: to turn a sharp, painful recession into a long Depression. Banking and housing chaos is a "once-in-a-century credit tsunami" that has led to a breakdown in how the free market system functions. Obama's Democrats Bill Clinton, Pelosi socialist policies and debt-based monetary system caused the financial collapse and encouraged the greedy, and sent U.S. jobs to foreign countries.

There is no mistaking what is coming. Even before Democrats won sweeping, one-party control of Washington, they had made their intentions to increase taxes and spending clear. House Financial Services Committee Chairman Barney Frank conceded that Democrats will raise taxes to pay for new government spending. And President-elect Barack Obama has clearly expressed his preference for wealth redistribution over wealth creation.

If the Obama/Pelosi special session House Bill passes, government spending increases by $300 billion, for a total in last six months of 2008 to $1.45 trillion.

Do you know which special interest has given more money to the Obama campaign than any other? Trial attorneys top the list, obviously, because Obama is an attorney, an officer of the Judiciary, and therefore excluded by law from being the executive, i.e., President. But attorneys disdain the Constitutional separation of powers, all the power to screw The People. The second highest donors to Obama campaign, according to CNNMoney.com, are Wall Street securities and investment firms that have given over $35 million to Democratic candidates this election cycle. And the amount they've given to the Obama campaign is nearly five times the amount they've given to McCain.

If you've been wondering why the financial industry has been in meltdown -- and taking your 401(k) or investment portfolio down with it -- now you know why betting the entire U.S. economy on the likes of Obama makes sense to the frat boys now in the financial industry. We MUST fight against Wall Street greed and corruption and against the federal bailout of the culprits who have become multi-millionaires by gambling with the savings, pensions, retirement security, mortgages, and futures of hard-working everyday Americans.

Obama's VP running mate, senator Joe Biden represents the good ol' Boy Washington DC criminal monopoly of crooked "Demopublican" politicians who have taxed and spent USA to slavery and established a Police State against Americans with the 9/11 attack on America as their fraudulent excuse.

John McCain-Sarah Palin Support Gun Rights, Jobs, Cut Taxes & Gov't

Presidential candidate John McCain's voting record supports the individual right to keep and bear arms, and his V.P. running mate Sarah Palin is a woman who governs Alaska, has more executive experience than Obama/Biden combined, and she is a 2nd Amendment supporter who also a successful big game hunter. Both have a long records as reformers and fighters of government corruption regardless of political Party or bi-partisan corruption. Both are Christian, both are conservatives on family values and marriage and abortion, and the economy.

The McCain/Palin economic plan will create new jobs and lower energy prices without raising taxes or wasting billions of pork:

- * Cut taxes on small businesses, letting them use their money to create jobs.
- * Give tax relief to middle-class families as well, to help them with the cost of living.
- * Quickly rebuild Americans' 401(k)s by cutting the capital gains tax to zero.
- * Enact comprehensive "all of the above" energy reform to create 1 million new jobs.

"This isn't a theoretical campaign promise. This is the pro-growth plan we'll put head-to-head with Democrats' pork-laden "stimulus" immediately after the election. Together we can deliver real, pro-growth economic reforms that create new jobs, lower energy costs, and allow our employers to compete. Together we can fix a broken Washington," says McCain.

Voters this election will hopefully focus on serious issues because it is clear that crooked incumbent Democrats and Republicans politicians with BigOIL and BigBANKSTERS and other cohorts have trashed our Constitution and trampled our liberties, and brought this Nation to its knees on the economic front, corrupted our governmental institutions, allowed the Office of President to become a Dictatorship, displayed a bad moral example, committed war crimes and terrorism against sovereign nations of people who never presented a threat to USA, fostered violent drug crimes and underground drug economy with their failed War on Drugs, violated 2nd Amendment with thousands of gun control laws, created a Police State and covered up the real truth about who did 9/11 because all the evidence points to an inside job of war on America, obstruction of justice, pre-meditated murder, and WTC-Silverman's 3-Billion dollar insurance fraud.

The McCain reforms of government administration must be implemented if our freedom and liberty and our rights, our economic power and ability to compete in the global economy as an independent and sovereign Nation of self governing individuals exercising government in republican form as mandated by the Constitution for the United States of America are to be protected from socialist and fascist oppression by an Obama regime.. Without reforms, it can get worse!

Obama's VP running mate Joe Biden clearly stated that there will be a catastrophic event to challenge Obama's ability to lead within six months if he is elected. Biden apparently knows what the McCain campaign has long suspected: If Obama is elected, we will be lost in the fog of violent revolution and Police State oppression, high taxes and massive government spending that will make previous big spending Administrations look like frugal conservatives; unprecedented tyranny from government institutions will ensue as the Apocalypse of Economic Depression caused by violations and corruption of our Constitution for the United States of America delivers its effects nationwide. God help us! Vote McCain/Palin.

Women's Health Fair Celebrates October - Breast Health Month

Molokai General Hospital and the Susan Komen Breast Cancer Foundation sponsored the 4th annual Women's Health Fair at the Home Pumehana Center on Saturday, October 25. Women from all over the island enjoyed a morning of activities and ono pasta salad. Educational activities included MGH staffers, Dr. Brazzel and Bonnie giving free sun block, shown below, with MGH President Janice Kalanihauia, while emphasizing the importance of skin cancer prevention for the whole family.

The MGH Cancer Navigation Project, Kukui Ahi staff, Haunani, Avette and Lily offered information about the services for early detection and support through navigating the treatment or screening process for a variety of evaluations and tests, some offered here on island.

Early Detection is the KEY to More Successful Treatment

Breast Cancer is one of the most frequently diagnosed cancers in women. Early detection of breast cancer can save lives and increase treatment options. The following breast cancer screening schedule is recommended by the American Cancer Society.

- Age 40 & over - Mammogram and Clinical Breast Exam yearly.
- Age 20s and 30s - Clinical Breast Exam at least every 3 years
- Starting in the 20s - Choose whether or how often to do Breast Self-Exam (BSE). Please note that many experts recommend doing a monthly BSE starting at age 20. Consult your health care professional at the time of your Clinical Breast Exam.

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:
“A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.”
Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."
 (Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"The people cannot delegate to government the power to do anything which would be unlawful for them to do themselves."- John Locke

"Those who make peaceful change impossible, make violent change inevitable." -- Robert F. Kennedy

"Rebellion against tyrants is obedience to God." T.J.

Enforce the Bill of Rights !

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Police Power is for The People

The police power stated in the PREAMBLE to the Constitution for the United States of America is the Authority of the People to enforce the law.

WE THE PEOPLE of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

This is the statement of the POLICE POWER where "Polis" means the inhabitants of the land who know what they want and intend to enforce it by whatever means necessary.

The difference between a republic form of government, and other forms of government [monarchy, dictatorship, kingdom, socialist/communist] is that every Citizen in an egalitarian republic is an equal Citizen. Those not vested with such power have no authority to exercise the law. ALL CITIZENS are Civil Officers and a constituent element of the state having equal right to administration of affairs of government at their descretion. Civil servants are employees paid for administration of affairs of government and have inferior authority and powers in their capacity as civil servants.

Such things as claiming JURISDICTION to speak law or, literally, dictate justice depend upon being a Citizen; and, in the legal practice which has dominated our judicial system you are called upon to STATE your status or forfeit it.

If you are one of the people of the United States as mentioned in the Preamble, and if you make suit in a court of record, then the Constitution authorizes the judicial power of the United States in all suits at common law.

Lawful gun ownership lowers violent crime

I am writing on behalf of Lessons In Firearms Education, a nonprofit service club of NRA-certified basic firearms safety instructors.

The state attorney general's report of a 60 percent increase in gun registrations in Hawaii from 2000 through 2007 should be viewed as a good sign of sovereignty and self government. Unfortunately, one Meda Chesney-Lind, University of Hawaii criminologist, opined that "Any time you increase the number of guns in the community, you increase the likelihood of higher suicide rates and higher homicide rates," but she is wrong. U.H. "experts" has a history of false and misleading politically correct statements, e.g. Chip Fletcher says seawalls cause beach erosion, which is also false, but is adopted by State.

Research on U.S. communities shows that suicide rates remain unchanged and violent crime decreases in communities where lawful gun ownership increases. Data from the Hawaii State Department of Health show Hawaii suicide rates have declined 18 percent from 2000 to 2006 during the same period the AG reports a 60 percent rise in gun registrations; and, Hawaii homicide rates, according to the FBI Uniform Crime report, dropped 45% at the same time.

Guns Preserve YOUR Sovereignty:

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights! Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

"A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." Exercise the 2nd Amendment.

Obama's Anti-Gun Rights Record Exposed

<http://www.goapvf.org>

Limiting self-defense, Obama voted to allow the prosecution of people who used a firearm for self-defense in their homes. (Illinois Senate, S.B. 2165, vote 20, 3/25/04)

Senator Barack Obama refused to sign the brief supporting an individual Second Amendment right in the Heller case.

Obama against Right-to-Carry. (Pittsburgh Tribune-Review, 4/2/08; Chicago Tribune, 9/15/04)

Ammunition ban supporter. Obama voted to ban almost all rifle ammunition commonly used for hunting and sport shooting. (United States Senate, S. 397, vote 217, 7/29/05)

The Brady Campaign Hoping For Expanded "Assault Weapons" Ban Under An Obama Administration: With the prospect of Sen. Barack Obama being elected President, the Brady Campaign is trying to rejuvenate a ban on all detachable-magazine semi-automatic firearms, a vast expansion of the federal "assault weapon" law of 1994--2004. As Brady notes in a new propaganda paper, "Senator Barack Obama supports banning assault weapons."

New Orleans Mayor Finally Admits Illegal Gun Confiscation, Settles With NRA: After a three-year legal battle over the unconstitutional confiscation of lawfully owned firearms during Hurricane Katrina, a permanent injunction has been issued against the city, Mayor Ray Nagin, and current Police Chief Warren Riley. The Second Amendment Foundation assisted with the NRA lawsuit.

Obama calls gun owners BITTER CLINGERS. Barack Obama was recorded at a San Francisco fundraiser, calling gun owners bitter clingers, voters who are bitter because of their economic frustration and so cling bitterly to their Bibles and their guns. If you are a law abiding gun owner who rejects Obama's bitter clinger, long on to Gun Owners of America website gun rights ratings of politicians: <http://www.goapvf.org> to check out the politicians stand on gun rights. Congressional and presidential ratings are all in one place now, and users will find the information they're looking for in a much timelier manner.

You owe it to yourself to check out the record of those who are trying to represent you in Congress, and to encourage others you know to check out the ratings as well.

Wearing bright pink t-shirts, MGH staff and dozens of volunteers from various agencies offered samples, prizes and some thoughtful "pampering" activities.

MCC student and event volunteer Cresselda, joined MGH nurses offering soothing, relaxing hand massage.

Approximately 1 in 8 women will develop breast cancer in their lifetime. Na Pu'uwai's nurse Donna and health educators Valerie and Susan offered glucose test and a breast cancer awareness quiz as well as information about future screening clinics and information about the Health Fair on November 22.

Molokai Healthy Start staff, Josephine, Corinne and Shirley (not in photo Lottie) offered information about their service supporting parenting skills with appreciating the importance of nurturing and effective, positive guidance.

Molokai Tobacco Free Coalition teens Kyli Jo, Ashlynn and Justine with their advisor Josette had serious multiple-choice cancer/tobacco questionnaires. Knowledge of facts of the deadly effects of tobacco use got you a nice reward.

Women of all ages enjoyed the information and activities, including tips on brushing teeth and flossing from Debs Maple, DOH dental hygienist.

Also Queen's Hospital nursing staff came all to offer blood pressure, blood glucose tests. And Women's Shelter, Molokai Community Health Center, Hospice Hawaii, Jazzercise were among the local agencies with health and wellness information at this well-attended event. While learning about health and wellness, Molokai's women of all ages enjoyed the information, activities and treats offered during the uplifting Pink is the color of HOPE time.

Killer-Cop Walks in Ohio Drug-SWAT Raid Shooting by Blaming the Victim

An all-white jury found Lima, Ohio, Police Sgt. Joe Chavalia not guilty on all counts in the January shooting death of 27-year-old Tarika Wilson during a January SWAT team raid on the home of a low-level crack cocaine dealer who was her live-in boyfriend. Wilson was shot and killed as she cowered at the door of a second-floor bedroom holding her infant child, Sincere Wilson, in her arms. The child was also hit; he had a finger amputated because of his wounds.

In the midst of community outrage over the killing of Wilson, whose five other children were in the bedroom behind her, Sgt. Chavalia was indicted in her death -- but only on misdemeanor charges. He faced a maximum of eight months in prison if found guilty in her killing.

During his testimony at the trial, Sergeant Chavalia said that he believed his life was in danger when he entered the home and saw a "shadowy figure" down the hallway at the same time that he heard gunshots. He then opened fire, killing Wilson. Testimony at the trial determined that the gunshots Chavalia heard were in fact fired by two other SWAT team members, who were murdering two pit bulls on the ground floor.

"There was absolutely, positively no doubt in my mind right then and there that whatever this was is shooting and they're trying to kill me," he told the jury.

Chavalia's attorney, Bill Kluge, waged an aggressive case, even stooping to blaming the victim for getting herself killed. Wilson had chosen to live with a drug dealer, he said, and she had failed to identify herself to the yelling intruders who broke down her door.

"Why would she put those children in that position? I don't know the answer to that," Kluge said. "Love is a strange thing."

After hearing 3 1/2 days of testimony in the case, the jury deliberated for three hours before clearing Chavalia.

"We're supposed to take this with a smile? We're supposed to believe in justice?" asked an incredulous Ivory Austin II, Wilson's half-brother, in remarks reported by the Toledo Blade.

"We've got to do better. We've given people the license to kill," Jason Upthegrove, president of the Lima chapter of the NAACP, said afterward.

The Rev. Arnold Manley, pastor of Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church, told the Blade he came to the trial to see justice prevail but that did not happen. "As a pastor, I'm hurt deeply that we can walk away from this and say justice has been done," he said. "How do I go out to tell the people on the streets, 'Let the law prevail'? How do I say that? White man justice. Black man grief."

Darla Kaye Jennings, grandmother of Sincere Wilson responded to Lima's "white man justice" by filing a federal civil rights lawsuit against Chavalia and the city of Lima the day after the verdict was announced. The lawsuit asks for compensation for Sincere's injuries as well as an end to "police abuse by requiring that high risk search warrant executions be limited to situations where they are truly needed and where the least amount of force necessary to the situation is employed."

According to the lawsuit, the shooting that led to Wilson's death and her son's injuries was "excessive, unreasonable, and completely unnecessary." The lawsuit further said that Sergeant Chavalia acted "negligently" when he used deadly force.

Another killer cop has walked. But perhaps the city of Lima will learn a hard lesson when it is forced to pay for its misdeeds.

The drug war is a war on the American People that does much more harm than the drugs would if made legal!!

Vote Nov.4: your power

Once we have come to the point where whatever the political elites do flat-out stops working, things will change – and we are now very close to that point! The more they try to do, i.e., the bank bailouts, gun control, War on Drugs, IRS, DEA, TSA, etc. the less it works. The law of diminishing returns is spitting them right in the face. The more they try what doesn't work, the more people will lose respect for them, and that will get people madder.

Your electric power may go out. There won't be food in your local supermarket, no gas for your car, no gun to defend against criminal home invaders – but this time you'll know that it is your 'leaders' in government and banking who are the source of the pain you are experiencing.

The framers of the Constitution for the united States of America gave us a decentralized federal system with little power at D.C., and most powers to the states and all power retained by The People. But Democrats/Socialists/fascists corrupted it. We are now seeing that centralizing and controlling everything from the federal level magnifies evil and creates opportunity for TREASON.

And now, in the face of all this abundant evil, politicians and so-called banking leaders are now using the bad situation that they created as an excuse for persuading us to give them the added power they need to make it even worse!

Democrat & Republican regimes of paper money inflation and centralized over-regulation of everything has brought free Americans to a point as regulated as slaves, or worse, and the additional concentration of power at the government level will certainly not make the economy any better, either.

The debt-based paper money economy was a fun fantasy. Now, it's time for some reality. Our officials will continue to prove to us that they can't do the job, so we will have no choice but to step in and do it for them. In the process, we will realize that we don't need them nearly as much as they need us. With the accurate perception of reality comes wisdom - and the determination to act.

Vote to un-elect every single politician who is asking to be reelected, from state-rep to federal congressman and senator. It won't even matter whom you vote for, as long as you vote the incumbents out. Then, repeat next election if there is one, from now on until you die. It's the only power you have left before armed revolution against dictatorship in USA.

MPD DARE Cops Practice Assault

Maui Police Commission, MPD Cowards, Sneak Into Molokai for “Public” Meeting, Announce Transfer of Caparida to Maui for More DRUG War Tyranny Training

Without notice to The MAN, Molokai's longest lived ever local newspaper, the Maui Police Commission sneaked into Molokai for a “public” meeting to update the community about the Police Department's activities, and maybe hear from Molokai residents about their concerns, providing there is no criticism of MPD, of course. The Dispatch, a sycophant to MPD fascists apparently was notified and two weeks later reporter Marie Nowell wrote that this was the “first appearance [of Maui Police Commission] on Molokai since a resident [George Peabody editor of The MAN] attempted a citizen's arrest on an officer [Chief Thomas Phillips] five years ago. This year's meeting went notably smoother.”

Chief Phillips said he wants Molokai residents to “work with police, having a partnership to help resolve issues.” Obviously that mission does not include bringing him to justice for his crimes with a trial by a Molokai jury.

Chief Phillips' bragged again about MPD's federally funded Green Harvest marijuana eradication missions that bring in big bucks to MPD, and property seizures which we know are used for bogus MPD Employee Development at the rate of $25,000-50,000 per month. He also announced that MPD employee Stafford Caparida, an aspiring drug warrior, is transferred to Maui to work in the drug busting department.

After learning of the secrete Maui Police Commission meeting, George Peabody wrote a letter to officer Eugene Santiago to complain and express his disappointment in being excluded. He wrote in part the following:

Hi Eugene: it was real cowardly for MPD and MPC not to inform me that the Maui Police Commission was going to hold a meeting on Molokai where I could have presented for the MPC public record my recent complaints against MPD employee Caparida, MPD Policies, MPD training, MPD violations of Constitution for the united States of America, and once again declare Chief criminal Thomas Phillips under Citizen's Arrest to be brought to trial where the facts regarding the charges against him would be heard and his defenses if any weighed by a Molokai jury. Now I will just have to send my complaints by letter to MPC, whose members will, as they have done before, corrupt the record so as to cover up the criminal complaints against MPD employees and the commissioners themselves and their recording secretary. Its a felony to corrupt the record, but so what, the cops and prosecutors are in on the fraud, too, so no worry.

There are others who fear MPD, court system abuses, prison guards, just as do I, but for different reasons. Obviously that is the way Phillips and his gang, prosecutors and judges want their relationship with civilians to continue to be. Unfortunately, it will stay that way until MPD et al are held responsible through Citizen Enforcement Actions of arrest and prosecutions for your criminal actions.

War on Citizens is treason, and I have added it to the previous charges I have made against Phillips et al including kidnapping, homicide, perjury, false arrest, torture, extortion, unlawful imprisonment, fraud, misprison of office, Violations of Oath of Office, misprison of felony, conspiracy to violate Constitution and Bill of Rights, and the wholesale violations of the Constitution for the united States of America and the Bill of Rights.

Someday, justice will find the guilty MPD employees before God, if I don't get the MPD criminals in blue indicted and prosecuted first.

MORE DRUG BUST Terrorism: Walk toward the light!'

Yolanda Welch 68, awoke at 4 a.m. to barking dogs and a man's voice crackling over a loudspeaker. Half asleep, she opened the sliding-glass door off her bedroom and immediately had spotlights in her face. A no knock drug raid !!

"Walk toward the light! Walk toward the light!" the man's voice boomed. She walked down to the field off her deck, where she said officers threw her against a van and handcuffed her. Grandpa Welch 71 came to the door. The 280- pound man screamed when his arthritic shoulder was dislocated as they cuffed him.

Black-clad officers seized more than 30 marijuana plants that son Michael Welch II was growing in a crawl space. They also took his Colt AR-15A2 Sporter rifle with scope, and a Remington Model 870 Wingmaster 12-gauge shotgun.

The Welches prided themselves as an American family with Second and Fourth Amendment values. They acknowledged owning guns, and growing marijuana as did our Nations Founders.

Son Michael Welch II was taken into custody held on $200,000 bond and spent the next month in jail before U.S. District Judge Krieger dismissed the case with prejudice because the government's case was based on a police informant's perjured testimony. Police lie, and people die!

Is this what we want out MPD officers doing to Molokai residents? DARE is a grant money scam for MPD, promotes crime. Stop the War on Drugs!
