Federal ObamaCARE Enforcers Could Be Charged as Criminals in Texas

Governor-elect Neil Abercrombie says he wants to "protect Hawaii", according to his press release about visiting Molokai next week Wednesday with his lieutenant governor, Brian Schatz. Abercrombie is starting his all island inaugural events series of "confirmation ceremonies" called "To Protect Hawaii."

Hawaii need protection from state employees who think they have immunity to violate the rights of Sovereign United States Citizens. Recent case in point.

Suit filed against state for violation of demonstrator's civil rights

A state judge last week found two demonstrators not guilty of disorderly conduct filed against them, and in her ruling determined that the religious ceremony at the start of the Hawaii state Senate is unconstitutional as demonstrators stated.

Protester Mitch Kahle stood from his seat in the gallery of the Senate chambers and said, "I object. My name is Mitch Kahle and I object to this prayer on the grounds that it's a violation of the first amendment of the constitution of the United States. I object." Kahle's protest lasted about four seconds. Then he stopped talking and sat down. For that he was attacked and arrested by Senate Sgt at Arms with several sheriff brownshirts. The state now faces charges brought by the demonstrators for assaulting them and violating their civil rights. The incident was caught on camera in the rotunda of the State, and sheriffs tried to prevent the video, too.

Will Abercrombie protect Hawaii from the growing number of similar violations by courtroom sheriffs, and police officers, and DEA, ATF, FBI, Obama et al ?

Probably not, as Abercrombie is a Democrap/Communist/Police State and Obama worshipper who speaks out of both sides of his mouth with lies.

Texans take their rights seriously, and Hawaii lawmakers should do the same thing to protect Hawaii from rights violations perpetrated by public servants:

A bill that has been prefiled for the 2011 state legislative session creates penalties of up to $5,000 in fines and up to five years in jail for anyone guilty of the "felony" of attempting "to enforce an act, order, law, statute, rule or regulation" of the United States in violation of this chapter.

Texans want to stop public servants who make a mockery of Founding Father James Madison's assurance in Federalist Paper Number 45 that the powers delegated to the federal government are 'few and defined' while those that remain in the state governments are 'numerous and indefinite.'"

Michael Maharrey of the Tenth Amendment Center explains that "The passage of the [ObamaCARE] act opened the eyes of many previously apathetic citizens, making them aware of the rapidly expanding scope and influence of the federal government and its intrusiveness into their everyday lives. They intuitively understand that requiring them to purchase health insurance falls far beyond the powers granted to Congress by the Constitution. He noted that 14 states already have sued to block implementation of Obamacare, and there probably are more than a dozen lawsuits brought by other plaintiffs already, too.

But he explained that the Texas plan takes the issue "a step further."

"While some might call this legislation radical, it rests squarely within the scope of state power as understood by the framers of the Constitution. James Madison wrote in the Virginia Resolution of 1798 that states not only have a right, but a duty to step in when the federal government oversteps its authority," Maharrey wrote.

So, governor Abercrombie, are you going to Protect Hawaii from criminals ?

Audubon Christmas Bird Count

Make your reservations now!

The 111th Audubon Christmas Bird Count (CBC) will take place on Molokai on Thursday, December 23. The Audubon Christmas Bird Count is an annual nationwide count that takes place in established areas during the same time period in the month of December. The information compiled over time provides a useful tool indicating population trends of bird species.

The Topside Molokai count extends 6.5 miles out from a point near Kualapuu and is divided into three locations. Seabirds, shorebirds and waterfowl are counted via a northern pelagic route that includes the cliff known as "Cables" on Dept. of Hawaiian Home Lands, the Molokai Irrigation System's Kualapuu Reservoir, and a second cliff location where seabirds can be viewed. Forest birds are typically counted at the Waikolu Lookout and The Nature Conservancy's Kamakou Preserve (weather permitting). Waders and waterfowl are surveyed along the south shore; Goodfellow Bros. Koheo wetland, the Kaunakakai Wastewater Treatment Plant, the low tide mudflats at the Kapuaiwa coconut grove, the aquaculture farm at Palaauwai, and Kakahaia National Wildlife Refuge in Kawela (if ponds are inundated). The Kalaupapa Peninsula is the fourth route in the count circle and individuals must perform the Topside count in order to participate (This count location is limited to 10 participants and must be permitted one week before the count date).

Reservations are requested for the count, which begins at 7:00 am at the residence of organizer Arleone Dibben, located exactly at the 4 mile marker in Kawela. A $5 donation benefits the National Audubon Society for count compilation; Participants are published in American Birds. Molokai residents are encouraged to participate – No age is too young to learn about birds and no experience is necessary. Participants are asked to bring water, snacks and a lunch. For more information contact the organizer: Arleone Dibben at 553-5992

Stop TSA Terror

"Solutions" video Proves TSA Fraud! Dogs Superior to X-Ray and NaziXams

Video: <http://www.brasschecktv.com/page/985.html>

That's the video that shows that full-body scanners and random groping are not only unnecessary, they DO NOT provide security.

The best security on earth against bombs is well trained bomb-sniffing dogs. The US military knows that which is why they depend on them in Iraq etc. The FBI uses them to guard their Washington DC headquarters.

There's no debate, there's no doubt, there's no question. Properly trained bomb-sniffing dogs will make air travel safer than scanners and official sexual assaults. That should be a headline in major news media. Where is it?

With bomb sniffing dogs there is never any need to irradiate anybody. There is certainly no need to engage in TSA molestation of random children or adults.

Not only that, but dogs can check EVERYBODY, something the scanners cannot do and random gropings cannot do.

So not only are the intrusions of these methods distasteful, THEY ARE NOT REAL SECURITY. They are highly expensive security theater [making Chertoff rich] which creates the illusions of security which leaves our airports and planes wide open to attack.

Here it is again...We've got the FBI and the US military stating unequivocally that when it matters to them, they go with bomb-sniffing dogs, NOT bogus electronics or public humiliation of random travelers.

see the Video: <http://www.brasschecktv.com/page/985.html>

Facts:

* The FBI does not use scanners to protect its headquarters in Washington DC - it uses bomb sniffing dogs which are not only cheaper, they are infinitely more reliable

* In Iraq and Afghanistan where suicide bombers are a real problem, the US military does not use electronics to detect them, they use bomb-sniffing dogs

* In Russia, the site of the supposed "bra bomber," the response has been to bring in bomb-sniffing dogs NOT to molest random women travelers.

How could it possibly be more clear?

The scanners and gropings are NOT proper security measures!

TSA Funding Cut Proposed !

A Democratic member of the U.S. House of Representatives is now urging Congress to freeze funding for the controversial nude-image scanners being installed in airports around the nation by the Transportation Security Administration.

U.S. Rep. Rush Holt, D-N.J., a Ph.D. physicist and current chair of the House Select Oversight Panel, also has written to ask for a meeting with TSA Administrator John Pistole to discuss his concerns regarding TSA's implementation of X-ray backscatter full-body scanning machines at airports throughout the nation.

On his website, Holt said, "Like many of you, I have serious questions about the Transportation Security Administration's new body imaging technology and pat-down procedures. I have written to the TSA administrator and called for congressional hearings about the need to look more closely at the privacy issues and effectiveness of the screenings, and especially the potential long-term health effects of the new technology."

He said, "We shouldn't be using, much less expanding the use of, technology unless we are sure of the health impact. The GAO, the investigative arm of Congress, is conducting an examination of backscatter technology. As I've urged, Congress should freeze funding for any further full-body scanning devices employing this technology until GAO completes its study and the government establishes a more rational and selective use of these procedures and technology based on sound science."

His letter to the TSA included a long list of other issues with which he was concerned, including the machines' capabilities of storing images and transmitting them.

The statements indicate a clear break by Holt from the Obama policy line that the backscatter machines and invasive pat-downs are necessary for airline security.

Zach Goldberg, spokesman for Holt, confirmed to WND that the congressman wants to make sure the TSA has reviewed the science and studied thoroughly the new screening procedures before expanding those X-ray scanning procedures into airports throughout the nation.

But the letter, dated Nov. 19, supports a request Holt made in August urging congressional leaders to freeze funding for the TSA advanced imaging scanners until questions regarding the X-ray machines had been answered. "As a scientist and chairman of the Select Intelligence Oversight Panel, I appreciate the challenges we face in trying to prevent terrorists from boarding American airliners," Holt wrote. "That same background also gives me an understanding of why TSA's current obsession with fielding body imaging technology is misguided, counterproductive, and potentially dangerous."

Dr. David Brenner of Columbia University's Center for Radiological Research gave a presentation on the potential health effects of the TSA backscatter X-ray devices and he stressed:

The TSA advanced imaging devices in use deliver to the scalp 20 times the average dose that is typically quoted by TSA and throughout the industry;

Brenner also told WND that TSA is relying on "bought and paid for" industry studies and manufacturers' specifications, not scientific research examining the TSA X-ray machines independently, with results being published in peer-reviewed journals.

"A headlong rush to embrace fallible technology will only give the public the illusion of increased security at the expense of their privacy and dignity, with no assurance that the use of these machines will actually deter or detect terrorists before they act," Holt said in his letter to Pistole.

Holt also expressed concern that the TSA had not yet implemented directives prohibiting TSA personnel who are operating AIT units from transmitting or saving the images of individual passengers, or from having video-recording devices such as smartphones on their persons while operating the machines.

You Can Protect Freedom: Question Authority!

"Where Rights secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no rule making or legislation which would abrogate them." Miranda v Arizona, (1966)

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:
“A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.”
Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."
 (Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"The people cannot delegate to government the power to do anything which would be unlawful for them to do themselves."- John Locke

"Those who make peaceful change impossible, make violent change inevitable." -- Robert F. Kennedy

"Rebellion against tyrants is obedience to God." T.J.

Enforce the Bill of Rights !

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Congress! First: Read the Constitution

Firearms need to enforce this Resolution against Congresscrittes !

Whereas the U.S. Declaration of Independence states "that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed;"

Whereas, the U.S. Constitution grants the federal government specific, limited and delegated powers;

Whereas, the House and Senate spend an average of about 1,000 hours per year in session;

Whereas, the U.S. Constitution is 4,400 words in length and would take less than two hours to read out loud;

Whereas, every member of Congress swears an oath to protect and defend the U.S. Constitution;

Therefore, be resolved that we the undersigned urge the United States House and Senate to read aloud, in each, chamber the U.S. Constitution in its entirety at the start of the One Hundred Twelfth Congress, and that Article 1, Section 8 of the Constitution be read aloud on the first legislative day of each month that the Congress is in session.

<http://readtheconstitution.org> and sign the petition!

In January, the new Congress will be sworn in, and each member will swear an oath to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States.

Judging by how often Congress operates outside the bounds of the Constitution, one wonders if the members actually ever read our most important founding document.

If there is a mandate for the Congress coming out of the 2010 elections, it is that the Constitution must be made relevant again. And what better way to begin the One Hundred Twelfth Congress than to have read aloud, in both the House and Senate, the Constitution in its entirety.

In the past, the House and Senate waste hours congratulating sports teams, naming post offices, and various other meaningless tasks; worse, much more time doing things for which it has absolutely no constitutional authority.

The purpose of this petition is clear and obvious. The Congress must be reminded that this is a nation of laws, and there is a law that governs what the Congress is empowered to do -- Constitution for the United States of America.

If you believe that the Constitution matters in the 21st century, and if you agree that it would be time well spent for the Congress to read the Constitution, then please SIGN THE PETITION. <http://readtheconstitution.org>

Every signature on this petition counts. So please help get the word out. Spread the petition effort far and wide -- family, friends, churches, gun clubs, Facebook, e-mail lists, internet forums, your own website or blog, radio shows... whatever you think might result in even one additional signature. Thank you.

HAWAII LEGISLATURE: WAKE UP !

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights! Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

"A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." Exercise the 2nd Amendment.
