Keiki Surfers + Waves

Licensed Medical Marijuana Use Is Not A Crime in Hawaii So Why is Jersula Manaba Persecuting Gloria Molica?

Last Saturday's Keiki Surf Meet at Waialua Beach had consistent keiki size waves throughout all the heats of contestants, and outside winds for windsurfers. July 11 is the final contest day. After that its all for Soul Surfers.

A legal notice [re: Lease Violation] from Home Pumehana manager Jersula Manaba to tenant Gloria Molica states that she is in violation of Section 9(i) of your Rental Agreement which states, in part, "The Landlord may terminate this Agreement for the following reasons: 1. Drug related criminal activity engaged in on or near the premises...4. criminal activity by a tenant...(a) that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents....Further into the letter Manaba writes that "...you informed me that you are a registered medical marijuana user and asked if a copy of your card could be placed in your resident file. You also confirmed that you have potted plants in your possession within the unit." The next day, April 3, 2009, Manaba wrote to Molica "On April 3, 2009 you informed me that you removed 3 marijuana plants from the common grounds behind your unit.....This letter shall cancel the pending lease termination..." Apparently Gloria has complied with the Lease Agreement and can stay.

Well, maybe not? She was summoned by Manaba to an eviction hearing at Molokai District Court on June 23 in case 09-1-1294 based on alleged Controlled Substances violations regarding her licensed medical marijuana medicine being defined as "drug related criminal activity." [Hmm, how you figga? The blue card is state of Hawaii authorization to possess, grow, transport, and use marijuana for personal medical purposes. Feds can not interfere with such state laws!]]

Gloria wrote that she is not a criminal for ingesting Medical Marijuana, and the State of Hawaii has issued me a Medical Marijuana Card, due to my medical problems. What I do is not illegal in the State of Hawaii. She sought legal assistance from Legal Aid Society. Unfortunately, the LAS attorneys and Gloria and Jersula and her attorney Maria Sullivan did not know that the U.S. Supreme Court gave tacit support to Gloria's defense of legality of Hawaii medical marijuana law in a recent case that was cited for Gloria when she asked George Peabody for information on her case after the court hearing with judge Barclay MacDonald. This hostility between them could have been avoided. Here is the legal interpretation.

Hawaii State Medical Marijuana Regulations Are NOT Preempted by Federal Prohibition DEA Law

Op/ed report by George Peabody

The U.S. Supreme Court has left in place a state appeals court ruling [case #08-887 San Diego v. NORML] holding that the state's medical marijuana laws "do not pose a significant impediment" to the federal Controlled Substances Act because that law is designed to "combat recreational drug use, not to regulate a state's medical practices."

Contrary to the pro-supremacy position of San Diego that a state's medical marijuana program violates federal law under the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution, the trial court concluded that title 21 United States Code section 903 was intended to preserve all state laws with few exceptions, and that a state's medical marijuana regulations were not preempted because they did not mandate conduct violating the intent of the federal drug law.

The intent of Congress when it enacted the CSA is the touchstone of analysis: When Congress legislates in a field which the States have traditionally occupied, e.g., medical practices, we know that the historic police powers of the States were not to be superseded by any Federal Act unless that was the clear and manifest purpose of Congress's legislation that is supposed to protect the rights of the Sovereign People, and constrain federal government agents according to Constitutional limits.

Back to Kaunakakai courthouse, Manaba's position is that Home Pumehana has a zero-tolerance policy for drug violations. But, history shows that all police actions based on zero tolerance violate an American Citizen's inalienable rights, and have been based on fascist anti-Constitutional hubris and is treasonous.

While any petition for redress depends upon the opinion of an attorney who is acting as a judge and thereby regulates all attorneys, then the petition is flawed and every client is thereby crippled, judge MacDonald correctly stated that Molica is not engaging in criminal activity as a Hawaii licensed medical marijuana user. Then he ordered Manaba to submit a memorandum by July 28 to justify Molica's medical marijuana use as a violation of the drug related criminal activity clause.

Stop War on Drugs 2009

Every day that goes by, 4,000 people are arrested for drug offenses, the vast majority of them minor, and half a million nonviolent drug offenders languish in the staggering number of prisons and jails the fascist Police State American government has very unwisely built. Obama promised to stop it! WELL.....??

It's time to stop this senseless tragedy and shocking injustice.

HEMP BILL PASSED in OREGON

The Oregon House Monday passed SB 676 by a veto-proof margin of 46-11. The measure would allow for the production, possession, and commercialization of industrial hemp and its products. The measure passed the state Senate on June 19 an equally veto-proof 27-2 margin. Oregon is the ninth state to authorize industrial hemp production under state law.

Hemp farming in USA remains forbidden by federal law. "The time has come for the federal government to act and allow farmers to once again grow hemp, so American companies will no longer need to import it and American farmers will no longer be denied a profitable new crop," said Vote Hemp president Eric Steenstra. "Under current federal policy, industrial hemp can be imported, but it cannot be grown by American farmers. Hemp is a versatile, environmentally-friendly crop that has not been grown in the US for over fifty years because of a misguided and politicized interpretation of the nation's drug laws by the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA).

Oregon is the second state to approve industrial hemp this year. Maine did so last month. Four other states, Montana, New Mexico, Vermont and North Dakota passed resolutions or memorials urging Congress to allow states to regulate hemp farming this year. Hawaii was the first to approve hemp farming, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Montana, North Dakota, Vermont and West Virginia. North Dakota has even issued licenses to would-be hemp farmers for the past two years, but the federal prohibition has prevented any hemp planting.

The DEA could be prohibited from enforcement by the Governor of any state, but Lingle et al refuse to confront Obama's DEA and MPD drug war goons.

Molokai's Forum For Freedom

Take A Gun to Church

Violence in churches is on the rise, experts say. Fearing violence, and made wary by recent events, church leaders are turning to security companies for help and even asking members to carry guns for security reasons.

Last March, a man strode down the aisle of the First Baptist Church in Maryville, Ill., pulled out a .45-caliber semiautomatic pistol and fired at the pastor. The Rev. Fred Winters deflected the first bullet with his Bible, sending bits of it into the air like confetti. But the next three rounds hit Winters, killing him.

It wasn't the first church shooting of 2009 — in February, a man knelt before a cross at the Crystal Cathedral in Garden Grove and killed himself with a gun — and it wasn't the last. This month, Dr. George Tiller, a Kansas physician who performed late-term abortions, was shot to death in the foyer of his Wichita church by an anti-abortion protester.

As more shootings at houses of worship make headlines, churches around the country are stepping up security, training their staff on how to detect and confront violent assailants, and asking congregants with licenses to carry guns during services. That's what brought 15 Southern California church leaders to Garden Grove last week to attend an "Interfaith Intruder Response" course.

"I think that we're living in a violent time and we have a duty to ensure the safety of our flock," said Fred Rodriguez, a senior pastor at Elsinore First Assembly in Lake Elsinore.

Rodriguez said he came to the seminar because he worries that church violence will get worse. "The Scripture says we're living the last days," the clergyman said. "A person doesn't have to look too far to see evidence."

The class, which met in a nondescript hotel conference room, was led by Vaughn Baker, who owns a security company called Strategos International. Baker is one of several church security consultants who travel the country like itinerant preachers, teaching seminars and writing up security plans for churches.

After an opening prayer, Baker offered some grim statistics. In the last decade, he said, 50 people were killed and 30 wounded in 35 church shootings. In 2007, there were six church shootings. In 2008, there were 18.

In most cases, the shooter was someone with a connection to the church.

"You guys know the world's not getting better," said Baker, who, along with many church security consultants, is a churchgoer and has a background in law enforcement. "We've got to protect ourselves. He suggested that churches organize undercover security teams — and recommended that some members come armed with concealed weapons.

If violence breaks out at church, it could take minutes for even the fastest police and rescue crews to respond, Baker said, "and there's a whole lot of bad that can happen in two to three minutes."

Synagogues and black churches, frequent targets of racial vandalism and violence, have long had security measures in place. Even so, some are now boosting their efforts in the wake of several high-profile hate crimes, including this month's shooting at the National Holocaust Museum in Washington, D.C.

Churches are easy targets because you've got a large number of unarmed people in a very confined and close space such that an armed gunman can shoot a lot of people in a very short amount of time. Take your gun to church!

Bill of Rights 2nd Amendment:
"A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

Wake up militia! Use it , or lose it ! Got your gun, yet?

"...with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, or fortunes and our sacred honor."

(Unanimous Declaration of Independence)

If you will not fight for the right when you can easily win without bloodshed, and, if you will not fight when your victory will be sure and not too costly, you may come to the moment when you will have to fight with all the odds against you and only a precarious chance of survival. There may even be a worse case. You may have to fight when there is no hope of victory, because it is better to perish than live as slaves.

"And how we burned in the camps later, thinking: What would things have been like if every Security operative [insert your favorite alphabet Gang DEA, BATFE, H.S., TSA, FBI, IRS, NSA, CIA, LEOs etc. here], when he went out at night to make an arrest, had been uncertain whether he would return alive and had to say goodbye to his family? Or if, during periods of mass arrests, as for example in Leningrad, when they arrested a quarter of the entire city, people had not simply sat there in their lairs, paling in terror at every bang of the downstairs door and at every step on the staircase, but had understood they had nothing left to lose [neither do you now] and had boldly set up in the downstairs hall an ambush of half a dozen people with axes, hammers, pokers, or whatever else was at hand. The Organs would very quickly have suffered a shortage of officers and transports and, notwithstanding all of Stalin's thirst; the cursed machine would have ground to a halt!" -- The Gulag Archipelago, Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Gun Rights Refresher

1. An armed man is a citizen. An unarmed man is a subject.
2. A gun in the hand is better than a cop on the phone.
3. If guns cause crime, then pencils cause misspelled words.
4. "Free" men do not ask permission to bear arms.
5. If you don't know your rights you don't have any.
6. Those who trade liberty for security have neither.
7. What part of "shall not be infringed" do you not understand?
8. The Second Amendment is to enforce the other 9 Amendments.
9. 64,999,987 firearms owners killed no one yesterday.
10. Guns only have two enemies; rust and politicians.
11. Know guns, know peace, know safety.
12. No guns, no peace, no safety.
13. You don't shoot to kill; you shoot to stay alive.
14. 911 - government sponsored Dial-a-Prayer.
15. Assault is a behavior, not a gun device.
16. Criminals love gun control -- it makes their jobs safer.
17. If guns cause crime, then matches cause arson.
18. Only a government that is afraid of citizens prohibits guns.
19. You only have the rights you are willing to fight for.
20. Remove the people's right to bear arms, you create slaves.
21. The American Revolution was about gun control.

Crimes of Politicians Must Be Stopped by The People (You are The Militia)

The crime on our streets is a tiny fraction of the crime in the offices of our politicians and bureaucrats - the massive majority of crime is committed by the criminal classes in power. Just look at the constant abuse of power in our State government offices and you will realize the extent of crime in Government. Just consider just how many BILLIONS of dollars a day Government extorts from the people and how little WE get in return; and just how comfortable the politicians make themselves at the expense of the peoples they extort!

The goal of the founders of America was to restrict government within severe limits and to protect the rights of sovereign individuals. Government has NO rights!

Judges are impeachable. Furthermore, judges may be removed immediately for violating oaths of office, involvement in conspiracies, extortion, and failing to uphold their duty to the common law. Judges can also be arrested, they are not exempt from this nor are any other officials, including the President of the United States.

Do the people have the power to do this? Yes, the people have the power to do everything to defend our country against all enemies foreign or domestic politician, and government has no power to say otherwise. Fascist bureaucrats might send out its armed marauders, but a huge group of The People (Militia) armed with guns as guaranteed their Right to keep and bear arms by the 2nd Amendment is likely to stop them unless the governments decide that it is time to begin mass killings of all people who believe in the rights of Man.

Wake up ! Enforce the Bill of Rights !

"A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed." Exercise the 2nd Amendment.

9/11 EXPOSED AGAIN: Former Head Of
Missile Defense Program Says Cheney is Main 9/11
Suspect; and, Official version of events a conspiracy theory, and NORAD drills were cover for attacks

presented by George Peabody for The MAN

In an interview with The Alex Jones Show aired nationally on the GCN Radio Network, Dr. Robert M. Bowman, Lt. Col., USAF, ret. who is one of the country's foremost experts on National Security, stated that at the bare minimum if Osama bin Laden and Al-Qaeda were involved in 9/11 then the government stood down and allowed the attacks to happen. He said it is plausible that the entire chain of military command were unaware of what was taking place and were used as tools by the people pulling the strings behind the attack.

Bowman outlined how the drills on the morning of 9/11 that simulated planes crashing into buildings on the east coast were used as a cover to dupe unwitting air defense personnel into not responding quickly enough to stop the attack. "The exercises that went on that morning simulating the exact kind of thing that was happening so confused the people in the FAA and NORAD...that they didn't they didn't know what was real and what was part of the exercise," said Bowman. "I think the people who planned and carried out those exercises, they're the ones that should be the object of investigation."

Asked if he could name a prime suspect who was the likely architect behind the attacks, Bowman stated, "If I had to narrow it down to one person...I think my prime suspect would be Dick Cheney."

Bowman said that privately his military fighter pilot peers and colleagues did not disagree with his sentiments about the real story behind 9/11. Bowman agreed that the US was in danger of slipping into a dictatorship and stated, "I think there's been nothing closer to fascism than what we've seen lately from this government." Bowman slammed the Patriot Act as having, "Done more to destroy the rights of Americans than all of our enemies combined."

VP Dick Cheney

Bowman trashed the 9/11 Commission as a politically motivated cover-up with abounding conflicts of interest, charging, "The 9/11 Commission omitted anything that might be the least bit suspicious or embarrassing or in any way detract from the official conspiracy so it was a total whitewash." "There needs to be a true investigation, not the kind of sham investigations we have had with the 9/11 omission and all the rest of that junk," said Bowman.

Asked if the perpetrators of 9/11 were preparing to stage another false-flag attack to reinvigorate their agenda Bowman agreed that, "I can see that and I hope they can't pull it off, I hope they are prevented from pulling it off but I know darn good and well they'd like to have another one."

A mainstay of the attack pieces against Charlie Sheen have been that he is not credible enough to speak on the topic of 9/11. These charges are ridiculed by the fact that Sheen is an expert on 9/11 who spends hours a day meticulously researching the topic, something that the attack dogs have failed to do, aiming their comments solely at Sheen's personal life and ignoring his invitation to challenge him on the facts.

In addition, from the very start we have put forth eminently credible individuals only for them to be ignored by the establishment media. Physics Professors, former White House advisors and CIA analysts, the father of Reaganomics, German Defense Ministers and Bush's former Secretary of the Treasury, have all gone public on 9/11 but have been uniformly ignored by the majority of the establishment press. Will Robert Bowman, who flew 101 combat missions in Vietnam, is the recipient of the Eisenhower Medal, the George F. Kennan Peace Prize, the President's Medal of Veterans for Peace, the Society of Military Engineers Gold Medal (twice), 6-Air Medals, and dozens of other awards and honors, his Ph.D. is in Aeronautics and Nuclear Engineering from Caltech, chaired 8 major international conferences, and is an expert on National Security, also be blackballed by the mainstream Zionist controlled media who label the 9/11 Truthers as crazies?

We Are Sovereign! Now, The Crown Belongs to Every American Citizen

The "crown" is the symbolic corona of the presence of GOD. Prior to 1776 only the Monarch manifested the Divine Right of Kings. After the American Revolution of 1776, the crown became OUR heritage as a Nation of free people of a constitutional republic. We The People Are The SOVEREIGNTY

"Sovereignty is the right to govern; a nation or State-sovereign is the person or persons in whom that resides. In Europe the sovereignty is generally ascribed to the Prince; here it rests with the people; there, the sovereign actually administers the Government; here, never in a single instance; our Governors are the agents of the people, and at most stand in the same relation to their sovereign, in which regents in Europe stand to their sovereigns. Their Princes have personal powers, dignities, and pre-eminences, our rulers have none but official; nor do they partake in the sovereignty otherwise, or in any other capacity, than as private citizens." see CHISHOLM v. STATE OF GA., 2 U.S. 419 (1793)

Supreme Court rulings on the matter: "Sovereignty, itself, is, of course, not subject to law, for it is the author and source of law. In our republican form of government, sovereign powers are delegated to the agencies of government, sovereignty itself remains with the people, by whom and for whom all government exists and acts."
